A Birdwatching Year in Sandown Bay

Winter into Early Spring Sessions 2020

Tuesday 5 February - Wednesday 4 March – Tuesday 7 April

All sessions 10am – 12 noon

New to birdwatching?

Want to learn more about bird identification, bird behaviour and the fieldcraft of birdwatching?

Join Dave Fairlamb of Natural Links as he takes through A Birdwatching Year in Sandown Bay. Each event begins with an indoor session and illustrated talk at the Isle of Wight Zoo followed by a guided birdwatching walk around the seafront, wetlands and woodlands of Sandown Bay, with a rich array of waterbirds, seabirds, birds of prey and songbirds.

Each session is £13 per person which includes an illustrated talk, guided birdwatching walk and hot drink/biscuits or you can book all 3 sessions for only £35.

Booking essential at: natural.links@outlook.com or phone 07470 438815
